

My child seems to be a 'natural'. Do you have experience of working with talented young players?

I have coached many juniors up to county level & beyond. I currently work with a number of county standard juniors & can offer subsidised individual & group lessons for performance level players.